TOUR #3 THURSDAY, JULY 9 .....9:30AM.....$45
WINERY AND BREWERY TOURS AND TASTING, LUNCH ( cost of lunch not included)

1 .Chateau Ste. Michelle Winery, <http://www.ste-michelle.com/>

Washington state's oldest and most acclaimed winery features award-winning wines and an unparalleled tasting experience at our historic chateau and grounds near Seattle.

2. Red Hook Ale Brewery, Woodinville WA, <http://www.redhook.com/>

Redhook was co-founded by Paul Shipman and Gordon Bowker. Paul was working at an excellent Washington winery, Chateau Ste. Michelle, but dreamed of making great beer. Gordon had co-founded Starbucks so he knew a bit about brewing up a successful company.

Beautiful buildings, a fun tour and a tasty Pub lunch

3. Novelty Hill • Januik Winery, <http://januikwinery.com/events-group.html>

Mike Januik is one of Washington's most acclaimed winemakers, but he'd rather you taste his wine and decide what you think of his winemaking for yourself. He also thinks it's important you know he will never call a wine "intense." That's a descriptor he reserves for camping trips.

Mike doesn't think it is essential you know he was named one of the world's ten "Masters of Merlot" by Wine Enthusiast magazine. He'd be the last guy to tell you he's had numerous wines appear on Wine Spectator's prestigious "Top 100" list, most recently earning a place there with the 2003 Novelty Hill Cabernet Sauvignon – (he also makes wine for Novelty Hill). He doesn't think you'd be interested to know he was head winemaker at Chateau Ste. Michelle for ten years before starting his own winery in 1999 or that he's been making wine in the Columbia Valley since 1984. He is more impressed with a good University of Oregon football team than the master's degree in enology he holds from the University of California, Davis.
